Michael Glackin Earns 2010 DALBAR Certified ERISA 3(38) Adviser Award

(Boston, MA, November 19, 2010) Michael B. Glackin of InR Advisory Services, LLC has been certified by DALBAR, Inc. to assume the responsibility of an ERISA 3(38) Adviser. This certification grants Michael B. Glackin the right to use the designation of DALBAR Certified ERISA 3(38) Adviser and to disclose the accompanying credentials to the public and in particular, to plan fiduciaries who are obligated to prudently select and monitor their advisers.

"The DALBAR Certification permits InR Advisory Services, LLC to advertise our client ratings and simplifies the duties of a plan sponsor who engages us" said Michael B. Glackin, adding "It is a real advantage to show potential clients the trust, financial performance, quality of service and advice provided to our existing clients."

In order to earn the certification Michael B. Glackin underwent a due diligence process. The due diligence process consisted of a verification of qualifications and detailed disclosures, an extensive background check, an in-depth evaluation by his clients and an assessment of the alignment of contract terms with services offered. This due diligence is consistent with the guidelines provided by United States Department of Labor for advisers operating under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended [ERISA] Section 3(38) and associated regulations.

The documentation produced from the due diligence process provides plan fiduciaries with the basis for selecting and monitoring Michael B. Glackin as required by ERISA.
